

Consecration to the Holy Child of Prague

O Divine Child Jesus, only begotten Son of the Father, You are the true light that enlightens everyone coming into this world. It is through You that we are; it is through You that all things have been made; and without You, nothing would be.

It is therefore just / that we devote ourselves to You without reservation.

In gratitude for all the love with which You love us, we devote to You all the love our hearts are capable of. We ardently desire to love You still more, to offer You our hearts less worthy of You. Accept this ardent desire, O amiable Child-God, and kindly bless it.

You have suffered for us and have borne Your infirmities, in order that we might one day deserve to be associated with Your eternal happiness. We want to unite our sufferings to Yours, so that You may give them merit and they may be sanctified. As You have been weeping for us, because of our sins, help us by Your grace to weep for them ourselves.

We also devote to You all our joys. We only have the ambition and the will to seek those pleasing to Your service, by the practice of the virtues taught in the mysteries of Your Divine Childhood.

We beg You to help us by Your grace to acquire the gentleness, humility, the childlike simplicity, the filial confidence, and the perfect obedience, of which You gave us such a splendid example. May we progress in holiness and one day possess the rewards promised in heaven to those who practice the lessons of Your Holy Childhood. Amen.
